UD GUEST LECTURER TO ADDRESS THE NEW INTERNATIONAL ORDER

DAYTON, Ohio — Gie Goris, editor of Wereldwijd, the largest Dutch language magazine devoted to Third World issues, will be the guest lecturer at the University of Dayton at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 2, in the Sears Recital Hall in the Jesse Philips Humanities Center on campus.

His presentation will focus on "The New International Order: A European Perspective," and will address economic, social, political and moral dimensions. Admission is free and open to the public.

For 10 years, Goris served as regional director of Broederlijk Delen, the Catholic organization that provides millions of dollars to fund social development projects in Third World countries. He holds a licentiate degree in religious studies from the University of Louvain.
